On Monday, November 26, 2018, at 6:15 A.M., San Bruno Police Officers responded to the 7-11 convenience store at the corner of Angus Avenue and Huntington Avenue regarding the report of a stolen vehicle. The victim reported that they had left their white Ford F-150 pickup truck running with the keys inside while they went into the 7-11 store. A subject then entered the truck and drove away. The truck owner had also left their 3-year-old Border Collie "Tucks" inside the vehicle. Later in the day the vehicle and dog were located in a San Bruno City parking lot on Sylvan Avenue.
